From Luton terrace to Islamic State

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A FAMILY of 12 reported to have left the UK and travelled to Syria last week are said to have gone to join the Islamic State, according to a statement made on their behalf yesterday.

Allegedly released by a member of ISIS, it claimed the family 'felt safer than we have ever before' and were not forced to join the group.

Community leader Ashuk Ahmed said there was 'concern' over the disappearance of the family who failed to return from a holiday to Bangladesh in April.

The group, which includes a one-year-old child, flew out to Bangladesh via Turkey on April 10 and were due back on May 14. Bedfordshire Police said officers had initially stopped them from leaving the day before and had questioned someone in the party at the time.

Their home in Spencer Road was also searched but the force said nothing was found to suggest they intended to go to Syria.

Mr Ahmed said: "Obviously as a community we are shocked and are concerned about the safety of the children and the vulnerable adults: one is frail and the mother has cancer.

"We are as a community worried and we pray for their safe return."

Mr Ahmed also said their disappearance had mystified locals as the sons ran a successful plumbing and electrical business.

He added: "They bought new vans and they kitted them out with signs,

MISSING: It has been reported that the family of 12 (pictured above) are in Syria and (inset) their home in Luton searched which is why I find it very difficult to understand why they would go on a trip like this."

Bedfordshire Police said it is aware of suggestions the family were in Syria but added that it could not confirm the reports.

The revelation comes at the same as two other Luton sisters are believed to have been stopped from flying out of the country. The pair are said to have been stopped at the airport with the younger one having her passport confiscated. A source close to the girls told this newspaper detectives also searched their home in Luton.

Bedfordshire Police said they were 'unable to comment while there is an on-going investigation'.

The missing family have been named as:

■ Muhammed Abdul Mannan, 75,

his wife Minera Khatun, 53, of Spencer Road, Luton, their daughter Rajia Khanom, 21, and sons Mohammed Zayd Hussain, 25, Mohammed Toufique Hussain, 19

■ Mohammed Abil Kashem Saker, 31, and his wife Sheida Khanam, 27

■ Mohammed Saleh Hussain, 26, and his wife Roshanara Begum, 24, along with three children, aged between one and 11

Former fireman dies in collision

TRIBUTES left for an 83-year-old man who died in a collision have described him as a 'true gentleman'.

Ex-fireman Frederick Lander died at the scene after his car hit a wall on Monday in Edward Street, Dunstable, around noon.

He worked for the county's fire service from 1952-1982 and was awarded the long service and good conduct medal in 1972.

Tributes were left on Facebook as the news of his death was shared online.

One neighbour, Jean Bruce, said she had known him since she was five and had lived opposite him for 14 years.

She wrote: 'True gentleman. Ex-fireman, so went through a career like that and was safe. Always thinking of others. He potted some hyacinths up for me in spring when I called in to see him.

'Terribly sad.x' Bedfordshire Police have appealed for witnesses to the collision.

They have also issued an appeal for a separate incident in which a couple had money stolen from them by two women.

It happened minutes before the collision and the couple is believed to have been Mr Lander and his wife.

£3.6m policing cost of far right protests

BY NICK SMITH
nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

POLICING marches by far right groups in Luton have cost a total of £3.6m pounds in the last five years.

The most recent protest was last Saturday's Britain First march, which cost Bedfordshire Police £320,000, equivalent to the average annual wage of 10 police officers.

Only 250 Britain First supporters and counter-demonstrators attended the event, but it caused widespread disruption and also affected businesses.

Malu Lusadisu, owner of the six-month-old Ruby's Restaurant on Guildford Street, said he lost £1,000 after two birthday and two lunch bookings were cancelled.

He said: "We tried to move the parties to the day after but the customers said no and they were scared to come out."

Chris Planter, owner of Storm Salon, also on Guildford Street, said he lost £250 and closed early because of the march.

In the past the cost of policing previous protests has been reimbursed, but it is expected that future operations will be funded by Bedfordshire taxpayers alone.

Police and Crime Comm-

POLICE PRESENCE: Marshalling Saturday's Britain First March in Luton last Saturday cost the force £320,000

issioner Olly Martins has written an appeal to Home Secretary Theresa May, in which he said: "Bedfordshire Police is arguably the worst funded force in the country when taking account of the level of serious acquisitive crime, serious organised crime and the terror threat faced.

"It cannot therefore be right, in this time of austerity and police funding reductions, that a small force such as Bedfordshire and its local taxpayers must bear the burden of these extremist demonstrations."

Six investigated following man's death in custody

A MEETING by Luton's justice groups has been called for tomorrow to discuss the next course of action following the death of Istiak Yusuf in a police cell last month.

This comes after it was announced on Thursday that six officers were under investigation. Luton 4 Justice had previously called for an investigation into practices at Luton Police Station.

Mr Yusuf, 25, died on June 13 after he became unresponsive in a cell at Luton Police Station and attempts to revive him were unsuccessful. He had been arrested by Bedfordshire Police officers on suspicion of domestic violence at an address in Purley Centre, Luton at 8.47am that day and taken into custody.

Associate Commissioner from the Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC), Guido Liguori, said: "Since Mr Yusuf's death we have met with Mr Yusuf's wife and family several times to update them on the progress of our investigation."

"Our investigation is focussing on the adequacy of searches conducted when Mr Yusuf was arrested and later booked into custody. We have served misconduct notices on three Bedfordshire Police constables and two sergeants to inform them that they are being investigated in respect of the searches."

"A custody detention officer is also being investigated in respect of a check conducted on Mr Yusuf during his time in custody, and who has been served with a gross misconduct notice."

Bedfordshire Police Assistant Chief Constable Mike Colbourne said: "It is right that an open and transparent investigation takes place to establish the circumstances. We would like to express our deepest sympathies to Mr Yusuf's family and friends."

KILLER LOSES SENTENCE APPEAL
A 'DANGEROUS and wicked' killer, who has already won a cut in his jail term, has been refused an even bigger reduction by top judges. The Court of Appeal slashed 20-year Waqar Younis's minimum sentence from 28 to 25 years in January. The thug, of Queens Close, Luton, brutally stabbed 19-year-old Micah Urquhart in a revenge attack.

PHONE DRIVERS: THINK TWICE
MOTORISTS using their mobile phones while driving will be the target of a month-long THINK! campaign which started this week. Throughout July, the Bedfordshire, Cambridgeshire and Hertfordshire Road Policing Unit will be out looking for motorists breaking the law, as in 2014, more than 6,425 people were issued with tickets - 989 in Bedfordshire.

7/7 BOMBINGS REMEMBERED
MEMBERS of the Muslim and Christian communities will gather in the town centre on Tuesday to commemorate the 7/7 bombings. The groups will meet at St George's Square at 5.30pm and march up to Market Hill. The event, in conjunction with Luton in Harmony, is to make a positive statement of different communities in Luton marching as one.

BURGLAR CAUGHT IN THE ACT
POLICE are appealing for information after a burglary was disturbed at around 4am in Crawley Road, Luton on June 26. An Asian man ran away when he was confronted by the home owner and nothing was taken. The man is described in his 20s, slim, with black hair, wearing a red T-shirt and light coloured trousers.

Enjoying heat of the moment

BEDFORDSHIRE has been basking in temperatures hotter than Rio de Janeiro and Sydney, Australia, with the mercury hitting a sweltering 30C on July 1, when some places in the UK recorded the hottest July day since records began. The best they could do in Rio was a paltry 22C.

We may not have Copacabana Beach, but plenty of people were out and about making the most of the sunny weather, including these sun worshippers on Dunstable Downs.

The warm spell will continue into next week with temperatures around a rather more comfortable 25C.

Pellet gun menace in threat to cats and kids

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A NUMBER of Lewsey Farm residents have expressed concerns about a spate of pellet gun shootings.

The incidents are said to have taken place around the Anmer Gardens and St Dominic's Square areas, including one where a cat was shot and had to be taken to the vet. Fortunately it did not result in a serious injury.

According to the pet's owner, the incident happened at around 8pm on Monday and is one of several such shootings to have been reported on the 'Spotted: Lewsey Farm' Facebook page by people living in the ward in the last month.

On each occasion animals and sometimes even people have been targeted with pellet guns, according to the posts.

The cat's owner, who asked to remain anonymous, added: "Thankfully the cat is doing OK now and luckily he escaped with a not too serious injury. However, if the person who did this to him is reading, I hope they understand how serious this could have been."

"I hope you realise what an awful person you are and shooting at defenceless animals isn't harmless fun."

There have also been reports of children being shot with pellet guns in the St. Dominic's Square area earlier this month. Bedfordshire Police say they have received no reports of shootings, but are keen to hear from anybody who may have any information and urge people to come forward.

A spokeswoman for Bedfordshire Police said: "We would encourage anyone who such sees cruelty to animals or whose pet is victim of abuse to report it to the police."

"We take all allegations seriously and we will not tolerate such callous and sickening acts."

If you are found guilty of deliberately trying to injure or kill an animal you can face a fine, a possible prison sentence and a ban from keeping animals.

Dad's justice fight after death of son

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A FATHER is 'fighting for justice' after being told neither of two original suspects can be prosecuted for killing his 20-month-old son.

Nicholas Harry, 30, a Houghton Regis chef, lost his son Sam when he died on 24 April in 2013 after suffering a serious head injury earlier while in the care of his ex-partner Deanna Buffham, 28, and her then boyfriend Ryan Bate, 23.

Both were arrested on suspicion of his murder in April 2013 by Bedfordshire Police but were then released without charge.

Mr Harry appealed to the CPS but he has been told prosecutors cannot prove who caused the injuries which led to Sam suffering serious brain damage.

During a High Court hearing in December 2013 over the custody of another child Ms Buffham and Mr Bate had together, Mr Justice Keehan said both had given 'inconsistent' and 'unreliable' accounts of how Sam's injuries came about.

Mr Harry said: "They are free to run around and work anywhere without restrictions and that's unacceptable.

GRIEVING DAD: Nicholas Harry and son, Sam, in happier days. An inquest into the boy's death opens at Amptill Coroner's Court on Tuesday

The police do not know who it was. My son hit a surface with the force of a 60mph car crash and that does not just happen from falling off a chair."

Mr Harry said he has not stopped campaigning for Sam as it was his 'natural reaction'. He hopes future advances in medical science will help investigators when the case is reviewed.

He added: "Until something happens and someone pays the price for it, there's no way for me to fully recover, it's not possible."

A Bedfordshire Police spokeswoman said: "No murder investigation is ever closed, each is subject to regular reviews, including this one.

"If information becomes available that enables us to put an offender or offenders before court, we will always do so."

Award for heroic schoolgirl

A 12-YEAR-OLD girl who rescued a boy who fell down a manhole and helped a boy who fell from a tree, has received an award.

Molly Poultney, from Luton, pictured, was given the award after fetching blankets and helping the mother of a schoolmate who injured himself whilst they were on a day out in Berkhamsted on March 30.

The Caddington Village

School pupil received the award from the East of England Ambulance Service during an assembly and following the ceremony it emerged she had recently pulled out a young boy who fell into a manhole, keeping him calm after the incident happened.

Her mum, Lise, said: "We are so proud of Molly. She has always been so caring, even from an early age.

"She is such a brave and thoughtful girl and always wants to look after people."

Travellers issue 'for all of Luton'

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A COUNCILLOR has said travellers parking illegally is a problem which needs to be tackled across Luton after a group set up camp in two different areas of the town this week.

The group of around 10 caravans appeared on the High Town Park on Tuesday morning, which drew a number of complaints on social media from the ward's residents.

High Town councillor Aysegul Gurbuz understood the concerns of her ward members, before going on to say: "It's not just a High Town issue, it's one which needs to be dealt with across Luton."

"We are always in dialogue with the police when this happens and they are very efficient at moving the groups on."

A number of High Town residents suggested bollards to stop travellers getting onto the park, to which Cllr Gurbuz said: "That's something for the people who run the park to look at, along with the pros and cons."

The vans moved on from High Town on Wednesday, but were found in Stockwood Park the following day, having forced entry onto the site.

The legal process to remove the group from Stockwood Park began on Thursday, soon after they arrived and they were moved on from the site on Friday morning.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

ADVERTISEMENT

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

"The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Organisers set for a milestone Mela

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE artists are booked, the promotion is done and the build up to this year's Luton Mela, sponsored by Luton on Sunday, is in full swing.

This year is particularly special for the team behind the event as the Mela turns 15.

Zulfiqar Ahmed, chairman of Luton Mela since 2007, said: "We're confident of it being the best yet, as well as the biggest."

"We've grown every year since we took over and I'm confident we'll be able to match that in terms of the event's quality."

A team of just 15 is responsible for getting the event on track, increasing to 35 on the day to make sure everything runs smoothly, including volunteers from local businesses.

One of the organisers, Furhaad Ahmed, said: "All the artists have been booked, the finalists for our Talent Quest have been chosen and we're almost ready to go."

To celebrate the milestone, this will be the first time the event will be held over two days on August 1-2.

READY TO GO: After months of planning and preparation, the Luton Mela team is ready for what promises to be their biggest event yet

Mr Ahmed added: "As it's our 15th year, we wanted to aim big. Not just in terms of the Mela itself, but with who we attract."

This had led to a more diverse range of artists, including a fully fledged alternative stage, designed to cater for other communities in the town.

There has also been a change in main stage artists, with the Mela hoping to increase engagement with South Asian culture with those who may not be familiar with it. Mr Ahmed added: "One of the acts we've got this year is Signature, who are best known from Britain's Got Talent."

"We're hoping to tap into the interest of all of Luton's wide range of communities and engage them with the Mela and South Asian culture."

Clean up your act

YOUR story about dog poo annoyed me. Some people clear it up but even then the germs are still on the floor so they should disinfect the ground after clearing it up.

Dog muck is a major problem in this country nowadays. Lets face it, people only take their dogs out for a walk so they can crap, they don't want it in their gardens, so bring back dog licences and charge £2,000 per year, that would teach them.

Religion has 'lost its way'

I SEE the Archbishop of Canterbury added his name to the list of people asking Britain First to scrap their plans for a march through Luton.

In common with many others he labels their actions as divisive. This is bit rich coming from a religious leader.

Especially Justin Welby, because he has often been described as highly intelligent.

Surely, it couldn't have escaped his notice that paramount among the most divisive forces on the planet are its religions.

Just think how many conflicts would cease if all religionists – starting with their leaders – could all put their differences aside.

When that was behind us we could next set about exposing the stupidity of nationalism. The decks could then be clear for us to get on with solving the world's real problems such as disease, starvation and ine-

Luton, we are one community

I'M a Lutonian.

Growing up in Luton I had friends from different backgrounds who identified themselves simply as Lutonians, we all shared the knowledge that there was a lot more that unites us than divides us, and we all considered ourselves as 'one community'.

Unfortunately since the late 1990s and early 2000s the Luton 'community' has become a collection of 'communities' and with that segregation came distrust and misunderstanding, and a feeling of a community losing its way.

Luton, along with other towns and cities across the UK, has become divided.

The irony is that the very people who talk of unity are quick to use the language of division by quoting such words as diversity and multi-culturalism, which do nothing but emphasise our differences. Maybe if people stopped using such divisive words and actually started talking about 'one community' rather than the collection of 'communities' and more importantly treated everyone the same, rather than promoting cultural differences, then maybe, just maybe, the extremists from both sides that plague our town will be consigned to the history books.

quality. Religions and nationalism may have been good ideas at one time, but they have lost their way and are now at the root of far more harm than good.

Trading Standards would call them 'not fit for purpose'. Governments in the developed world began to realise this some time in the 20th century.

Why else do you think they began spending billions on their replacement – sport?

Help for those who care

MANY of your readers may have lost a loved one or cared for someone living with a terminal illness.

Marie Curie has been most closely associated with caring for people with terminal cancer, but as the UK's leading terminal illness charity we know that people with other diseases need the care and support provided by Marie Curie and other palliative care specialists.

We have just published a report which suggests that people living with a terminal illness other than cancer, such as heart failure, COPD, dementia, end stage liver disease and motor neurone disease, as well as conditions such as Parkinson's and acute stroke, are less likely to be offered or have access to palliative and end of life care services. Yet this could make a real difference, not only to them, but to their families and carers. Many patients are missing out on the opportunity to get the care and support they need, simply because health professionals don't know who is responsible for providing this care and who could benefit. We want that to change.

We have written to medical and nurse directors across the UK asking them to do three simple things to improve care and support for patients and their families affected by terminal illness:

1. Make certain that all medical and nursing staff know how to contact palliative care teams

2. Ensure that information on palliative care is widely available

3. Increase access to palliative care for all those who could benefit. This includes people with all terminal illnesses, as well as people with multiple sclerosis, Parkinson's disease and strokes.

If your readers would like to help Marie Curie spread this message across Bedfordshire I would encourage them to visit mariecurie.org.uk/change.

IF YOU suffer from low back pain and sciatica, you are one of over 20 million adults in the UK with this often crippling spinal condition.

Shooting, stabbing and burning pains from the low back, sometimes with additional pain through the buttocks and down the legs are all symptoms of a pinched nerve often called "sciatica".

In severe cases, it can lead to muscle wasting, numbness and constant tingling down to the tip of the toes. Left untreated, the intense pain can rapidly wear you down and drain the joy out of life.

That is, until now...

Recent advances in the treatment of sciatica and lower back pain have led to the development and huge success of Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care.

The excellent results of this treatment have been published in major medical journals. With success rates as high as 90% some back surgeons recommending their patients try this treatment first before having back surgery.

In Bedfordshire, you can try Non-Surgical Re-constructive Spinal Care at the Atlas Wellness Centre – the office of low back pain and sciatica relief expert Peter Olsson.

Peter and his team of fully trained spinal care specialists have helped over 3,000 patients find relief from their agonising back pain and sciatica.

Special LUTON ON SUNDAY Reader Offer

Breakthrough relief for back pain and sciatica

According to Peter, "We use a combination of ultra-advanced technology, not found elsewhere in Bedfordshire, for precisely diagnosing the cause of your low back pain and sciatica; and a unique programme for reconstructing the damaged area causing the pain; this means superior long-term results for most people."

Because the treatment is non-surgical, safe and easy, most patients report an almost immediate relief from their pain.

Patient Jeff P. from Cambridge says, "My back pain was unbearable but the worst thing was the searing burning pain I felt in my buttock and leg.

I couldn't work or do anything useful and the drugs my GP prescribed hardly did anything.

My wife insisted I respond to one of these ads, I thought it would be a total waste of time, but I'm so glad she kept on at me.

Thank god I called your number, I'm 95% better in just a couple of weeks."

Your invitation for a comprehensive consultation and examination to pinpoint the cause of your low back pain and sciatica...

Luton on Sunday has teamed up with the spine therapy specialists at Atlas Wellness Centre, to help readers find relief from their persistent back and sciatic pain.

All you have to do to receive a thorough diagnostic examination with the most advanced technology in the world and a comprehensive easy to understand report on your state of health is call 01234 340317.

Mention this article (CODE: LOS37SCID5) and Peter will happily reduce his usual consultation fee of £195 to just £37. But hurry, due to obvious reasons – this is a time limited offer – with only 100 reader consultations available at this exclusively discounted rate.

My advice, don't suffer a moment longer...

Find out if Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care can help you, book a consultation with Peter and his team now by calling 01234 340317, they are waiting to take your call today.

They actually treat the cause of your health problem, not just your symptoms.

That's why hundreds of grateful patients tell them "You gave me back my life!"

Over the years, they've treated thousands of patients with back problems and sciatica. The vast majority of them have enjoyed superior, lasting relief. In fact, many who've suffered and have tried other remedies have told them they gave them back their lives!

Call them now and get a full and thorough examination to pinpoint the cause of your problem for just £37, the normal cost of such an exam is £195 so you will save £158!

Don't suffer from the pain and immobility any longer. Discover the natural treatment that can eliminate the cause of your problem and give you the safe, lasting relief you deserve.

Call them now on 01234 340317 and cut out or tear off this valuable article now and take it to your appointment. You'll be entitled to a comprehensive examination to diagnose the cause of your problem – and you'll be on your way to safe, lasting relief! Don't delay your important diagnosis and treatment another moment!

You can even call on the weekend and leave a message on their answer machine to secure your spot as they promise to return all calls; and during the week they are very busy, so if they don't pick up straight away do leave a message.

Sciatica Relief Expert Peter Olsson, says: In 9 years of practice, I've never seen a treatment as effective as Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care for patients with sciatica or lower back pain

For obvious reasons they can't help everyone at this reduced price, so please call soon to secure your special opportunity.

Call 01234 340317 NOW and leave a message if it's the weekend or the line is busy - they promise they will get back to you as soon as they can. So call now on 01234 340317 and quote this special discount code: LOS37SCID5

Blogger tells off PM over cuts to college

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutonsunday.co.uk

STUDENTS face having their courses cut after only one year due to a reduction in government funding.

A student at Central Bedfordshire College has said he and others have been told to contact their career advisers and the possibility of attending other colleges.

Rowan Tyler, 17, a performing arts student, said students were 'angry' over the cuts to staff and courses.

He said: "I've just finished my first year. I believe it's getting cut now and I would say there are about 30 people on the course."

"They told us to contact the careers people about it to see what we can do about going on other courses."

"There was no warning about this when we started at the college."

The news follows an open letter written to the Prime Minister David Cameron by a former Central Bedfordshire student Georgie Coan, 21, who left the college in 2013 and now works as a digital marketing apprentice.

The letter, which has been featured on the Huffington Post UK website, said governments cuts to the further education budget would 'take away the options for young people' and make the arts a 'more elite' sector.

Ms Coan said: "I've spoken to people who are on the courses or signed up to one of the courses and they have been told that they might not be able to finish."

"I just think it's really unfair. As I said in my article, not everyone is academic. At school I wasn't academic and that course gave me something to believe in and made me believe in myself."

"Because they are cutting these courses, these young people are not going to be able to experience that and I think it's unfair to put people in a box and say that you have to do this or do that."

"I believe in the future it will affect the industry because you are not going to get young blood and what young people want is an answer as to why it's happening and what's going to be done about it."

A Central Bedfordshire College spokesman said the consultation process on 'potential redundancies' would end on July 17.

However Andrew Selous, MP for South West Beds, said part of the college's funding reduction was due to a dip in student attendance which has now increased.

He has asked the Minister for Skills, Nick Boles, to reconsider the level of funding allocated to Central Bedfordshire.

Dad on trial accused of baby's brain death

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

A FATHER is standing trial accused of killing his nine-week-old daughter after it is alleged he shook her so hard it damaged her brain beyond repair, a court has heard.

Adam Stokes, 33, from Green Close, Luton, is on trial for the manslaughter of his baby daughter Scarlett Stokes-Craig but denies causing the injuries which led to her death.

At Luton Crown Court this week, the prosecution alleged that the 33-year-old killed his baby daughter by shaking her with 'excessive force' which caused brain injuries.

The court heard how paramedics found her to be 'pale, unresponsive, blue, floppy, warm to the touch and in cardiac arrest'. She was immediately taken to Luton and Dunstable Hospital before being transferred to Great Ormond Street.

Paediatric consultant, Doctor Quen Mok was part of the team at Great Ormond Street treating Scarlett, who had 'collapsed' at her Luton home having gone into cardiac arrest.

Despite being put into an induced coma to ensure a good supply of blood and oxygen reached the brain, Scarlett died at the hospital in January 2013, 10 days after she was brought in. On January 24 she was taken off the ventilator and was certified dead that evening at 6pm.

The prosecution's case is that baby Scarlett was being fed by her father at the time she collapsed and the bleed to her brain that led to her death had been caused by shaking.

The trial continues.

Right up your street

Renamed road has grave and secret history

THIS week, Howard Chandler looks at how cemeteries influenced our streets...

We have many reasons to thank our Victorian ancestors. One of the less glamorous things they did was solve the problem of overcrowded, unsanitary cemeteries.

In 1854 a new cemetery was built right on the South-western outskirts of Luton on the slopes of Buxton Hill. The lane leading had the strikingly appropriate name; 'Cemetery Road'.

However, by 1871 houses had been built on this road and the residents were not keen on the name. They successfully applied to have the name changed to Rothesay Road.

The land for the cemetery was acquired from the trustees of the Bute family, owners of Luton Hoo for over 80 years. Rothesay is the principal town on the Isle of Bute.

It contains 102 war graves, 58 of those from the First World War, and the graves of many well-known Lutonians, including hat manufacturers and former mayors.

More information about this can be found at Luton Central Library.

Free solar panels on your home and reduce your electricity bills by up to 50%

Our client, a national installer of solar panel systems, is looking for properties with roofs suitable to install their free solar panels.

They are currently installing over 450 systems every week and your property may qualify.

If your property qualifies you will get free electricity throughout the day at absolutely no cost to you.

This means you could reduce your monthly electricity payments by up to 50%*

*Subject to usage. Average saving on electricity bills over a full year is 37%.

This is a free offer with absolutely no cost to you at any time. You will not be required to change your electricity supplier.

We're sure you've heard the saying; 'Nothing's for free in this life' - So how does the company get paid?

The company gets paid under a Government scheme called the 'Feed in Tariff'. This is why they are able to do it completely free for homeowners of qualifying properties.

However, unfortunately for a variety of reasons approximately 80% of properties do not qualify.

Does your property Qualify?

To qualify your property will be required to;

1. Have one of the roof surfaces, back or front, facing within 55° of south.
2. Have a roof surface large enough to fit at least a small system.
3. Have no over shading on relevant roof surface.
4. Be free of obstructions on relevant roof surface (flues etc).
5. Have access to purlins and rafters inside loft.
6. Have access and suitability to erect scaffolding or company's own work platform.
7. You have to own the property. (Private landlords are acceptable).

To find out if your property qualifies or for further information please call Greener Solutions on 01582 206003 between 9am and 7pm.

Don't miss out! Act now whilst the 'Feed in Tariff' is still at a level that makes this offer possible.

You can help make the UK a greener place and reduce your monthly electricity payment in the process. Plus a free, up to date, Energy Performance Certificate will be provided for your property after installation.

Car thefts due to market demand

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

DEMAND for stolen car parts is fuelling the theft and damaging of Vauxhall vehicles, police have said.

Bedfordshire Police has launched a crack down after recording an increase in the number of Vauxhall cars stolen in Bedfordshire in the first six months of the year.

There were 124 thefts between January-June 21 this year, compared with 115 thefts in the same period last year.

However, the number of parts stolen from Vauxhall vehicles has fallen from 540 in the same period last year to 335 so far this year.

One garage in Luton said it came across owners with modified and performance Vauxhall vehicles who had been affected.

Detective Chief Inspector Ian Middleton said: "The offences are only being committed because there is a market for the stolen parts."

"We have seen a rise in the theft of bumpers, seats and bonnets from Vauxhalls, as well as some incidents in which an entire car has been stolen from driveways and later found stripped of parts.

"Vauxhall vehicles are particularly popular in Bedfordshire due to the long-standing connection of the company with the local area."

"We suspect that the prevalence of the vehicles, coupled with the fact that even higher specification models are not routinely fitted with audible alarms, makes them a target for these crimes."

Inquest adjourned over lack of hospital report

AN inquest into a Dunstable man who died on a rail track in Leighton Buzzard has been adjourned due to a lack of information surrounding his death.

Amphill Coroner's Court heard this week that Innocent Phillip Rusenza, 20, pictured, died on February 7 this year, 12 hours after being released from the Luton and Dunstable Hospital.

Proceedings were adjourned due to a lack of representation from the hospital.

Senior Coroner Tom Osborne said: "I would not be able to hold a full inquiry into the death of Mr Rusenza without a report from the hospital as to why he was released from the ward after only four hours."

The inquest is expected to resume in September.

Beyond the

The year-long transformation from tiny seed to your favourite cereal is a truly miraculous work of nature and nurture

Cereal is a quick way to kick-start your day, but do you know the amazing journey takes almost a year for each grain to get to your bowl? It's a story of nature and nurture so impressive, Kellogg's believe you'll never take delicious grains for granted again.

animals, the crops wouldn't thrive. From beetles to birds, they all play a part in making sure the crop is as healthy and tasty as possible.

NURTURING NATURE

There is so much nature at work. Encouraged by Kellogg's, some farmers in the programme plant their hedgerows and wildflowers to support local wildlife and protect crops as they grow. It's amazing to think that just one square metre of wheat produces enough grain for around 28 bowls of cereal.

GROWING GOODNESS

Next time you have breakfast, remember this journey and share it with your children. After all, four out of five want to know more about food's origins. Kellogg's will carry on working with farmers to protect the land that gives your favourite cereal the goodness and taste you love.

DID YOU KNOW?

A worm is a farmer's best friend. They act as 'nature's ploughs', eating organic matter and creating a perfect environment for crops.

TOP OF THE CROPS

It can take 1,250 hours of sunshine and 109 buckets per square metre of rain to produce the wheat used to create many Kellogg's cereals. The crop is harvested, then milled, cooked with a few other ingredients, rolled into shapes and then toasted to perfection. All you have to do is add a splash of milk.

A WILD JOURNEY

Kellogg's Origins™ Programme supports farmers, helping them protect the land where ingredients grow – and the creatures living there. That's vital because without

DID YOU KNOW?

Farmers are encouraged to grow hedgerows and wild flowers to support birds, butterflies and insects. The hedgerows also help stop vital nutrients and soil being washed away by rain.

In the aftermath of the Britain First march on Saturday, NICK SMITH looks at the fall of the far right in Luton and how its people have become sick of their town being used as a base for their war of words

Far right: Luton has had enough

WHEN Paul Golding, leader of Britain First asked his supporters from Luton at last Saturday's march to make themselves known, you could count the number on one hand.

There has been a definite shift in the town in recent years which has seen dwindling numbers of people from Luton itself turn out to protests by far right groups.

On Saturday, the total number of Britain First supporters and counter protesters numbered 250.

In February 2011 more than 3,000 English Defence League (EDL) supporters attended the group's self-titled homecoming march, given the EDL's connection to the town, having started at Kenilworth Road.

A large number will have made a short trip, possibly even walked to the meeting point, ahead of the march.

As we saw on Saturday, with only a scattering, no more than five Lutonians among the Britain First ranks - at least those happy to identify themselves - the people of Luton seem to be losing their connection to the cause.

Of course the groups have a legal right to protest, but Luton has been targeted by a number of far right groups and judging by the reaction on Saturday people are getting sick of it.

Quite simply, Luton doesn't want these marches any more.

Dawood Masood, CEO of the Quba Trust, an interfaith group, said: "It seems like every six months we're having meetings about what to do with groups like these.

"First with the EDL and now Britain First, both of whom specifically target Luton. They in no way represent the town and events like this cost an awful lot of money for our already threadbare police force.

"The only solution I can see is a ban, or else these marches, which damage the town and its community, will just keep happening."

This was one of the reasons an emergency meeting was called last Wednesday, with representatives from a wide range of the town's communities, Luton Borough Council and Bedfordshire Police all in attendance.

Speaking to people outside of the meeting there was an overwhelming feeling of anger and disappointment that once again, a march hosted by a far right group was going ahead on the streets of Luton.

Council leader Hazel Simmons even went as far as to call the marchers 'unwelcome visitors.'

These are not attacks on free speech, but simply frustration at Luton constantly being used as a battleground for the far right's war of words.

The overwhelming feeling from the town's people to far right groups seems to be 'Leave Luton alone.'

Big-name stars ready to party at Mela's fifteenth anniversary event

FESTIVAL

LUTON MELA

Wardown Park

Saturday, August 1 and Sunday, August 2

IT'S Mela time!

The Luton festival - sponsored by Luton on Sunday - is back and bigger than ever to celebrate its fiteenth year with a two-day event packed with big stars coming to Wardown Park for the first time.

With artists on both the main stage and alternative stage announced, there is bound to be something for everyone.

Headlining the main stage bill is Canadian singer Raghav, who sold a huge 1.3 million copies of his album Storyteller, one of the biggest selling international albums ever in India.

This led to a MOBO Award, two UK Asian Music Awards, an Urban Music Award, and a sold out world tour. His music has been described as a mixture of pop and motown, by way of South Asia.

Joining him on the main stage is Lehmer Hussainpuri (pictured right), one of the world's premier Punjabi singers of recent times.

He has performed in stadiums across the globe and there is a real buzz among the organisers of the Mela about having him perform there for the first time.

From the UK, we have Suleman Mirza and Madhu Singh, best known to Britain's Got Talent viewers as Signature.

The talented duo mixes Michael Jackson's hits with British bhangra in a comedy dance-off routine.

Their act is both contemporary yet traditional, funny yet serious, and brings together both eastern and western popular cultures.

Joining them is British bhangra legend Balwinder Safri, best known for being lead singer of the Safri Boys.

As the Mela attracts such a wide variety of people, it makes sense for there to be a wide-reaching range of music on offer. A number of exciting acts have also been announced for the alternative stage, including Saturday headliners Indi and the Vegas (pictured above right).

The Hitchin band will bring their unique brand of funk pop to the weekend.

Imagine Queen meets Prince meets the Jackson 5 and that's about as close to their sound as you'll get.

Topping the bill on Sunday are Bedfordshire reggae legends the New Groove Foundation. Still going strong after 10 years, NGF will bring their unique brand of reggae fusion to close the festival. Fusing ska, dub and rap they are guaranteed to get you moving.

And finally, offering something a bit different are Luton's own Exit Black. The alternative rock group have gone from strength-to-strength since they formed in 2014 and are renowned as one of the hardest working bands in the scene.

Expect them to blow the roof off in their homecoming show. Entry to Luton Mela is completely free, just turn up and have a good time!

Sweet taste of honey will have you making a beeline to centre

WILDLIFE

BEE & HONEY DAY

Stockwood Park Discovery Centre
July 26, 11am-4pm

THIS month Stockwood Park will be buzzing with excitement for its Bee and Honey Day.

Busy bees of all descriptions should be attracted as the Bedfordshire Beekeepers Association (BBA) flies into town.

There will be lots of honey (and honey tasting, live demonstrations and advice on how to get involved with an insect which contributes £500 million to the UK economy through pollination).

Mike Niemann, the event organiser, said the honey bee yard at Stockwood has 'a few hundred thousand' bees flying at this time of the year, with a colony able to hold as much as 60,000 at a time.

He said: "I have been a beekeeper for over 30 years. I did a bit way back at school and I suppose that sparked an interest."

"There used to be a beekeeper who kept them in the farm where I lived. When the farmer died I got into it. Being a country lad, I suppose that's where the interest comes in."

The association, which has been

BEE'S KNEES: Mike Niemann is expecting Stockwood Park to be abuzz with visitors for its Bee and Honey Day going for more than 90 years, has around 400 members across the county, most of whom keep bees.

It has held several events such as these in the past and there has always been a healthy interest in the subject.

Mike said: "We will have a group of Bedfordshire beekeepers turn up there with an observation hive and talk to people who are interested, and just talking about the aspects of beekeeping."

"From the previous events we have done, people have been interested in joining but we do not beat about the bush, we tell people that it's not for everyone. But there are the hardy souls who come along and stay with us."

Colin Hall, chairman of the BBA, added: "Most of the public are supportive of beekeepers – they don't want to be beekeepers – but they support them and the pollination of crops."

"The value of pollination is about £500 million a year in this country. It's valuable for agricultural crops."

The event is free to attend and you can find out more about the event by visiting bedfordshirebeekeepers.org.uk

Week designed to bring out best in fashionistas

FASHION

BEDFORDSHIRE MUSIC & FASHION WEEK

Various Locations

July 10-12

SOME of the county's emerging designers and musicians will be the focus of attention at the Bedfordshire Music and Fashion Week.

More than 25 designers are going to showcase their creative talents during three events at King's House in Bedford (July 10), Dunstable Conference Centre (July 11), and The Mall in Luton (July 12).

Also included in the runway shows will be collections from final year fashion design students at Central Bedfordshire and Bedford Girls College.

Some of local brands exhibiting will be the Kasora Afrocentric Collection, childrenswear label RaRabYara, menswear label JC Reid, Ana Lopes Fashion and katutu by Attu.

Music comes from soul/reggae artist Nakisha Esnard and r'n'b group Soul Rhymaz, singer/songwriter Ryan Leo Prazer and guitarist Charlie Manning.

Adina Keeley, 28, a teacher from Luton, is organising the event and said it was about giving designers and musicians the exposure they deserve.

She said: "We hope that the event will encourage more people to get involved with voluntary work. We are trying to make sure that we increase people's entertainment and increase people's chances of getting involved in media and fashion."

Tickets cost £7 for adults and £5 for students. To buy tickets call 07904 491492.

Big night in memory of Jamie

CHARITY PERFORMANCE

BIG BAND TO BEATLES

The Grove Theatre
Saturday, 7.30pm

WHEN the Grand Union Community Choir (GUC) and ABC Big Band perform together next Saturday, the night will be more than just a musical journey through the music of the swinging sixties to the present day.

The Leighton Buzzard-based group, making another appearance following their sell-out success in 2013, will be joined by the ABC in remembering Jamie Tipler, a young boy who died in January this year at the age of 11 after suffering from a brain tumour.

The ex-Milton Keynes Preparatory School pupil, who lived in Leighton Buzzard, set up the foundation with the help of his parents to support other children suffering from cancer and their siblings.

His mum, Julie, has sung with the GUC choir for five years and said their support in holding fundraising events was 'unbelievable'.

She said: "Jamie started to think of the idea (of setting up the foundation) in mid to late 2013. We opened our bank account 12-months ago and that's when people started making donations and the choir started holding events for the charity.

"They were happy to be on board for the first events and help us to raise money.

"Their support was unbelievable and it was brilliant to have people that believed in what Jamie wanted to do."

The choir is made up of a mixture of singers with different vocal abilities.

It is led by Susan Cox, an experienced animator and local vocal director, and Anna Hailes, a graduate of the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland. They describe their repertoire as an 'eclectic mix of popular, folk, classical, Latin American, world and musicals'.

VOCAL SUPPORT: The Grand Union Community Choir will join with ABC Big Band for charity night

Julie was meant to have been singing with them but unfortunately fell ill. However, she said the concert will be a fantastic event, with something for everyone.

She added: "Jamie was forever upbeat and always had a smile on his face and he did whatever the doctor asked and you know, he is my son and I am biased, but he was brilliant and a massive loss.

"When my daughter Sophie was born I had cancer so unfortunately for her, she has had to cope with hospitals and she was always supportive.

"Her and Jamie were like two peas in a pod. "Because the awareness of the foundation is increasing we have had people start to make donations and people are doing cycle rides, marathons and cake sales."

Tickets for the event cost £12 and can be purchased by calling the Box Office on 01582 602080.

You can find out more about Jamie's charity at jamiesrhythmofofline.org.uk

Bet your bottom dollar young stars will shine in Annie

IT'S the hard-knock life for budding professionals of the stage and screen.

But students of one local theatre academy will be putting their talents in the spotlight as a brand new production of a family favourite hits the stage.

A-Stars Theatre Academy presents Annie as this year's annual end of year musical. Local children aged 5-18 years will perform the musical at Luton Library Theatre.

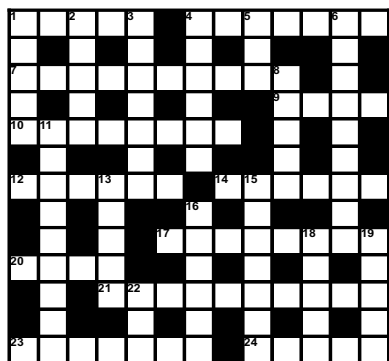

Teacher Ami Henderson said: "Singing, dancing, acting and lots of energy from our academy members will fill the stage this July. The kids are super excited and they just can't wait.

"The performance is about giving them experience in a real theatre and to help with their confidence and self-esteem.

Red Cast* perform on Saturday, July 18 at 1.30pm and Sunday, July 19 at 6.30pm and Blue Cast perform on Saturday 6.30pm & Sunday 1.30pm.

Tickets cost £10 or £8 concessions (Culture Card, NUS, OAPS, Under 18s). To book visit lutonculture.com or call the box office on 01582 878100.

What Your Agent Has To Say

Let the experts maximise price of your property

With the market place as buoyant as it is in most towns and cities, there has never been a better time to maximise the price of the property which you are selling. With most buyers in Bedford coming from out of town areas, investing in a corporate agent has never been so important.

Connells estate agents have seven local offices in around Bedford working together to maximise the price you achieve for your house with open days being the only way forward.

Finding the balance between maximising your price and being realistic as well as competitive can be the tricky part, but Connells Bedford is leading the way in the local market so there hasn't been a better time to sell with us. For more information please call Jack Goodacre on 01234 345303

PRESS RELEASE

CONNELLS OFFER HELP TO FIRST TIME BUYERS

With a fifth of young people believing it virtually impossible to get on the property ladder (Source: The Generation Rent report from Halifax), Connells in Luton is urging aspirational home owners to speak to its Mortgage Services Consultants as buying a first home may be within closer reach than initially thought.

The report shows that 21 per cent of 20 to 45 year olds think that they would struggle to get funding to buy their own home, but Connells believes that the right rate and right products are available to make home ownership accessible to many people:

“Many first time buyers dismiss the idea of seeking advice on buying their first home, mainly because they believe it is totally out of reach without a large deposit,” says Jay Taylor, Mortgage Advisor for Connells in Luton. “There are many competitive mortgage products available that require as little as a 5% deposit and getting on the property ladder could in fact become a reality.”*

“Although there are still challenges for first time buyers, there are also opportunities and many positive incentives to help those struggling to purchase their first property. For instance, the government backed ‘Help to Buy’ mortgage guarantee scheme is available to first time buyers with just a 5% deposit and the Help to Buy ISA launches this Autumn giving people a chance to build a greater deposit pot,” continues Jay.* “We urge anyone looking to take their first step toward home ownership to contact their local Connells branch as, with access to good mortgage advice, their dream home may be within reach.”

Connells offers mortgage and remortgage advice from its network of branches and has access to many different mortgage products from a panel of lenders. To speak to a Mortgage Advisor, please call the Luton branch on 01582 450999 or email: Luton@connells.co.uk.

Local Authority Notices

Luton Borough Council

THE BOROUGH OF LUTON (VARIOUS ROADS) (CARRIAGEWAY RESURFACING)
(TEMPORARY ROAD CLOSURE) ORDER 2015

NOTICE is hereby given that Luton Borough Council, the Highway Authority for the said Borough, made the above Order under the relevant provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 as amended.

The Order will come into operation on 1st July 2015, for a period of 18 months or until the works are completed whichever is earlier. The Order is intended to create a window for the works to be done and it is anticipated that the works will be as per the schedule below unless any such works are delayed by unforeseen circumstances.

The effect of the Order will allow the Council to close to traffic the roads and lengths of roads in the Schedule below. The Order is intended to create a window for the works to be done and it is anticipated that the works will be completed over a period within the dates described in the Schedule below. Specific times and dates will be signed locally.

The purpose of the Order is to enable carriageway surfacing works to be undertaken.

The Order will also provide for waiting restrictions to apply in each road for the period of the closure. This will be in force when cones are displayed. Vehicles will be prohibited from accessing and parking on the road with exception to vehicles used by the emergency services and vehicles being used in connection with the works. Access will be maintained as best as possible to properties where this may be done safely and diversions for traffic will be marked by signs.

5th July 2015

Graham Turner,
Highway Services manager,
Town Hall, Luton, LU1 2BQ

Alfa Romeo's anniversary marked with new Giulia

The all-new Alfa Romeo Giulia has been unveiled to the international media on the 105th anniversary of the founding of A.L.F.A. (Anonima Lombarda Fabbrica Automobili) at a special event in the newly-refurbished Alfa Romeo Museum – "La macchina del tempo" – in Arese, Italy, in the presence of some of the most significant cars in automotive history.

Developed by a Skunkworks of the best engineers, designers and stylists within FCA, the new Giulia embodies the core elements which have made Alfa Romeo one of the world's best-loved automotive brands – distinctive Italian design, innovative powertrains, perfect weight distribution, unique technical solutions and the best weight-to-power ratio.

The taut and compact proportions of the Giulia have evolved from its all-new, rear-wheel drive architecture. With the engine and major mechanical components arranged between the axles to ensure perfect 50/50 weight distribution, the Giulia has very short overhangs, a long bonnet and muscular haunches, while the wheelbase is longest in its segment to maximise stability, comfort and practicality.

Naturally, traditional Alfa Romeo design cues have not been forgotten, as demonstrated by the simple, natural lines of the Giulia, the perfectly-honed surface treatment and the legendary trefoil nose, one of the most recognisable style elements in the automotive world.

Inside, the design is just as crisp and fuss-free and, crucially, centred around the driver, with the main controls grouped together on the small steering wheel in a similar fashion to a Formula 1 car.

Under the bonnet, a range of state-of-the-art engines power the new Giulia with a bespoke unit created for the top-of-the-range Quadrifoglio version. Tuned by engineers from a Ferrari background, the flagship V6 turbo petrol powerplant delivers an impressive 510hp, propelling the Giulia Quadrifoglio from 0 to 62mph in just 3.9 seconds, while also offering surprising fuel efficiency thanks to electronically-controlled cylinder deactivation system.

In short, the Alfa Romeo Giulia can be summed up by the Italian term 'la meccanica delle emozioni' (the mechanics of emotion), a phrase which will be used to publicise the car globally.

Fiat 500X

Take a look inside...

The Fiat 500X joins the crossover fray, offering a neat and stylish extension of the 500 franchise. With a choice of front or all-wheel drive, some modern diesel and petrol engines and some aggressive pricing, this one's going to be extremely popular.

The front-wheel drive models will doubtless prove more popular with British buyers who are about as likely to take the 500X off-roading as they are to send it round the Nurburgring. You'll need to pay attention to the badging. A 500X Cross Plus has all-wheel drive but a 500X Cross merely looks as if it does. This being Fiat, we get a range of excellent engines right from the get-go. The petrol engines comprise a 109bhp 1.6-litre E-torQ and the more sophisticated 138bhp 1.4-litre Turbo MultiAir2 unit. Go diesel and you're looking at the smooth 118bhp 1.6-litre Multijet II for front-wheel drive applications and the 138bhp 2.0-litre Multijet II if you want four-wheel drive, the latter being mated to a nine(!)-speed automatic transmission. The manual 'boxes get six speeds, unless you're looking at the entry-level 1.6-litre EtorQ transmission, which makes do with five ratios. Fiat has also developed 168bhp 1.4-litre and 184bhp 2.4 petrol powerplants for this car, both with the auto and all-wheel drive.

There will always be resistance to any manufacturer that extends the scope of a retro re-issue beyond that of the original car. People lambasted MINI for doing just this with cars like the Countryman and Paceman, but if the job is done well, the buying public eventually comes round. Fiat look to have learned some lessons from the launch of the 500L – a car that should have probably worn '600' badges – and applied them to the 500X. It looks the part and continues a long tradition of small all-wheel drive Fiats, so it's not just a bit of a wheeze dreamed up by some kid in the marketing department with the ink still wet on his MBA certificate.

The styling is neat and assured, it fills a genuinely useful gap in the range, succeeding the Sedici, and the engineering that underpins it is all reassuringly right and exact. Fiat has priced it aggressively, equipped it generously and it's got enough room inside to fulfil that crossover remit.

DEPARTURES: Mark Cullen (main) has been sold and Lee Angol (inset) is also set to leave Luton

HATTERS

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

THE Hatters have been busy early on in the transfer window, making three new signings in the last week.

Playmaker Paddy McCourt and last season's Colchester United captain Magnus Okuonghae signed on Thursday.

Twenty-five-year-old striker Josh McQuoid penned a three-year contract with the Hatters on Monday following his release from Bournemouth, who are busy building a squad that can cope in the English elite for the first time in their history after they clinched the Championship title on the final day of last term.

"It's what happens in football, so I don't have any regrets or what ifs," McQuoid said, adding: "I'm just looking forward to getting into the season and hopefully doing well.

"With Bournemouth, I'm happy for all my [old] team-mates. I've got some good friends there and [manager] Eddie Howe was a good for me over the years. I was with him when he started and went to Burnley with him and back there [Bournemouth] when he went back.

"The first season back there was good and we got promoted [to League One], but I got another injury and never really got back in because they were pushing up so much.

"I went out on loan and it has been a bit back and forth, so it would be good to just settle in at a club, have a full season where I play lots of games and hopefully score a few goals; that would be nice."

McQuoid is likely to get his wish after Luton sold last term's top scorer Mark Cullen to Blackpool on Tuesday night for £180,000, six months after the forward looked poised to leave Town.

Another potential competitor for one of the starting spots up front also announced they will be leaving the club earlier this week.

Lee Angol, who spent last season on loan at Boreham Wood, where he was top scorer in Conference South, announced he would not be renewing his contract with the Hatters.

The club will be due compensation for Angol when he joins a new team.

McQuoid found himself surplus to requirements at Dean Court following a second spell at the Dorset club, where he had risen through the ranks.

He first left the south-coast outfit in 2011, swapping League One for the Championship when he completed a £550,000 switch to Millwall after an initial loan spell. But a lengthy injury rocked him early in his time at The Den and he only made 12 appearances.

"I don't think it came at the wrong time," McQuoid said, adding of the switch up to the second tier, "I felt like I was ready as a player but I was just unlucky with injuries."

Looking forward to next season, McQuoid said: "I think we'll have a good squad for next season. I've been impressed so far with what I've seen."

SWIMMING

Success for Mid Beds at East Region tournament

MID Beds Swim Squad had their most successful East Region Championships for several years with half of the line-up managing to qualify for the Youth and Age Group events.

Most successful of the swimmers was 14-year-old Molly Bow from Kempston who won a silver medal in the 50m breaststroke and a bronze in the 100m. She also claimed a seventh place finish in the 200m.

Fourteen year old James McFarland from Harlington won a silver medal in the 200m butterfly and finished fifth in the 200m freestyle. He was sixth in the 100m butterfly and 400m individual medley, seventh in the 50m butterfly and eighth in the 200m breaststroke.

The final medal was a bronze which went to 13-year-old Matt Peck from Chicksands in the 1500m freestyle. He had an excellent meet, finishing fourth in the 200m backstroke and seventh in the 100m. He was eighth in the 400m individual medley and ninth in the 400m freestyle.

Fourteen-year-old Charlotte Ashwin from Campton was unlucky to come away without a medal, finishing fourth in the 50m and 200m breaststroke events, sixth in the 200m individual medley and seventh in the 400m individual medley.

Lauren Thomas from Bedford finished sixth in the 200m butterfly in her first regional championships.

Other qualifiers in the East Region Age Group Championships were Emma Shoovert, Lauren Wilson, Eddie McFarland and Will Lowrie.

A recently developed link squad between Biggleswade and Flitwick Dolphins swimming clubs and the Mid Beds Swim Squad also reaped rewards with four swimmers qualifying for and competing in the Age Group Championships - Kai Borremeo from Flitwick and Austin Lillywhite, Rachael Andrews and Rhea Mason from Biggleswade.

Fifteen-year-old Georgina Curtis from Maulden finished fifth in both the 200m and 400m individual medley and seventh in the 200m backstroke. Other qualifiers were Julia Lenkiewicz, Max Stefanik and Katie Shoovert.

Head Coach Tom McManus said: "Overall it was a fantastic team performance and to have 25 top eight finishes is a fantastic return.

"The swimmers worked incredibly hard in the run up to the ASA East Region Championships and their hard work paid off. As a squad we have gone from strength to strength this season and I'm very happy."

The focus now switches to this season's National Championships where Molly Bow has qualified for the British National Summer Championships. Bow, Charlotte Ashwin and James McFarland have also all qualified for the ASA (English) Summer Championships.
